We are currently only accepting applications of people who are available to work Sundays.

We understand that Sunday is an important day for many people and their families. As a Christian-owned business, we deeply respect faith commitments and encourage our team members to remain connected to their church communities.

Terre has intentionally created spaces where people can gather, connect, study Scripture, discuss sermons, and build meaningful relationships. Many of our guests visit before church, after church, or for Bible studies and fellowship throughout the week.

Because of this, our baristas are required to be available 3 Sunday's/month
